

DORNIER WAL

“a Light coming over the Sea”

Index

Preface	7
Introduction	9
 BIRTH OF A FAMILY OF FLYING BOATS	 11
 THE WAL IN PERSPECTIVE	 21
 CONSTRUCTION OF THE WAL	 25
Advanced design criteria	25
Modular engine set-up	31
Perfect flight characteristics	33
Standard equipment of the Wal	35
 EXPEDITIONS, PIONEER FLIGHTS AND RECORDS	 39
Amundsen by air to the North Pole	39
Great aviators: Locatelli, Courtney, von Gronau and Franco	49
The Portuguese Sarmiento de Beires. A modern Magalhaes? . . .	59
Ramon Franco's attempt to fly around the world	63
Flight around the world in 110 days	67
Description of a flight expedition from Surabaya
to Borneo and Celebes	73
The major achievements of 32 world records	85
 MILITARY USE OF THE WAL	 87
Spain, first to recognize the military value	87
German rearmament under cloak	93
The Wal's early fundamental role for the Netherlands	97
Sketch of the Dutch operational field	97
Cumbersome decision making of the Dutch Government	99
Development of the Naval Air Station of Moro-Krembangan . . .	103

The first 5 flying boats in crates on their way to the Dutch East Indies	103
Disputable but successful construction in the Netherlands	105
Three Wals in an adventurous and unsuccessful transfer to the Dutch East Indies	109
The Wals in their practical operational environment	119
Strategic and tactical aspects	121
Change-over from the Wal to the Dornier Do 24K and the “Catalina”	121
CIVIL USE OF THE WAL	127
The Wal Passenger Flying Boat, “A light coming over the sea”	127
Expansion of air transportation in Italy	129
Passenger Flying Boats “Atlantico” and “Pacifico” in South and Central America	133
Kawasaki and Dornier	139
Deutsche Luf Hansa introduces the Wal	143
Hard competition on the Transatlantic Airmail Route	145
The first Catapultships of the Deutsche Luft Hansa	151
The German Antarctica expedition 1938-1939	159
Air Sea Rescue operations	161
The Wal decides Dornier’s future	164
During the World War II Do 18 and Do 26 saw service in Norway	164
THE DORNIER WAL COUNTRY OVERVIEW	167
List of matriculations	175
DORNIER WAL FAMILY CHRONOLOGY AND MILESTONES	210
RETROSPECTIVE AND OUTLOOK	216
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	217
BIBLIOGRAPHY	218